

The City of Sunnyvale and Sunnyvale Chamber of Commerce bring you

EARTH DAY GENERATIONS

Celebrating 40 Years!

Earth Day – April 24, 2010

Plaza Del Sol • 10 am - 2 pm

LIVE MUSIC by the Tenor Band

ENTERTAINMENT by ZunZun, and a unique Generations Re-Fashion Show produced by The Art Institute of California

KID'S ACTIVITIES including, arts and crafts, and a chance to make musical instruments for KID'S Plaza PARADE

EXHIBITS featuring local certified Green Businesses and organizations offering environmentally-friendly education, services and products including the Sunnyvale Chamber Of Commerce For The Greener Good! Expo

DEMONSTRATIONS – backyard composting, native gardening and water conservation

THE EVENT WILL ALSO FEATURE:

- Green Business Awards Presentation by Mayor Melinda Hamilton
- Mercury Thermometer Exchange – bring your mercury thermometer in a plastic, zip-sealed bag and receive a FREE digital thermometer in return (One (1) per household while supplies last)
- MedDrop (for prescription and non prescription drugs)
- Kids Art Exhibit. “40 Years — 40 Pieces.” See recycled creations made by young artists
- Tree Planting Ceremony in honor of Arbor Day

Bring family and friends — Celebrate Earth Day in Sunnyvale.

Stop by the Farmers' Market – across the street. Easy access to both events on public transportation.
Visit wonderful nearby shops and restaurants.

This is a Zero Waste event! Water will be available at water stations so please bring a water bottle and plan to pack out any non-recyclable items.

For more information, call (408) 730-7262, TDD (408) 730-7501, or visit www.sunnyvalerecycles.org